Dear Bill:

For the past year, under the Executive Exchange Program, which is administered by Mrs. June Walker, we have been most fortunate in having with us at City Investing Company, [redacted] [redacted] came to us from your Agency and has served as an Executive in our Planning Department. STAT

Since [redacted] is now returning to your Agency, I thought it would be appropriate to write you to commend her outstanding performance and personality. I feel in a company of our size (over 60,000 employees) we have many outstanding people and from time to time we do find one who truly has earned the right to be singled out and recognized. STAT

Unfortunately, the rules state that we cannot keep [redacted] - I would hesitate to incur June Walker's wrath if I tried to and, of course, I would not because of the ethical considerations involved. In any event, I thought I should write to inform you of my evaluation on her performance, while employed at City Investing Company. STAT

Cordially,

Geo.
